DIVERSITY
Civility and the Liberal Arts

INFORMATIONAL WEBINAR FOR PROSPECTIVE APPLICANTS • OCTOBER 5, 2017
TODAY’S PRESENTERS

Beverly Daniel Tatum
Institute Director
President Emerita, Spelman College

David Brailow
Vice President for Development

Philip M. Katz
Director of Projects
Housekeeping

- If you want to participate in the webinar using your phone, select “Telephone” and dial (415) 655-0060. The access code is 110-197-009. The PIN can be found on the right-hand side of the screen. You can also use a headset or mic and speakers connected to your computer.

- Use the Questions box on the right to submit questions. Please include your name and institution.

- All voice lines are muted.

- Note: The webinar is being recorded and will be posted to the CIC website.
TODAY’S AGENDA

• Institute background and content
• Who should participate?
• Institutional expectations
  ➢ Q & A
• The application process and guidelines
  ➢ Q & A
• Wrap-up
INSTITUTE BACKGROUND AND CONTENT

• Why now?
• CIC’s distinctive approach
• Content and focus of the Institute
WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

• The entire college or university is participating, not just the four people who come to the Institute.

• The teams include:
  ➢ 2 “permanent” faculty members
  ➢ 1 senior academic administrator
  ➢ 1 other campus administrator who can “take a lead role in bridging classroom and co-curricular activities”
INSTITUTIONAL EXPECTATIONS

• Develop realistic plans to incorporate Institute materials into the curriculum and outside of the classroom.

• Provide opportunities and resources for participants to share what they learn at the Institute with colleagues on campus.

• Use the Institute to help clarify how students, faculty, staff, and leadership should respond when dealing with potentially disruptive episodes.

• Be willing to share lessons with other institutions involved in the Institute for mutual support.

• Evaluate the campus impact, including institution-specific metrics and a written report to CIC.
QUESTIONS?

flickr/Stefan Baudy
APPLICATION PROCESS AND GUIDELINES

• A complete application includes:
  1. A narrative statement (six pages)
  2. Brief biographies (one page or less) of each team member
  3. A letter of support from the president
  4. Supplemental materials

• Review the Guidelines for Applicants before you prepare the narrative: www.cic.edu/DiversityInstitute.

• Application must be submitted online.
QUESTIONS?

flickr/Stefan Baudy
PROJECT TIMELINE

- November 17, 2017: Application deadline
- January 2018: Participants notified
- February 2018: Preliminary agenda and reading list sent to participants
- June 3–6, 2018: Institute meets in Atlanta, Georgia
- June 2019: CIC holds second Institute, with new institutional participants and a separate application process
FOR MORE INFORMATION

• Visit the project webpage. URL = www.cic.edu/DiversityInstitute
• Contact Phil Katz at pkatz@cic.nche.edu or (202) 466-7230
• Contact Beverly Tatum at BTatum@spelman.edu

THANK YOU!